Program Folio Dec. 27 - Jan. 23, 1966 Vol. 16, No. 14

KPFA's program listings, in the form of this Folio, are published every four weeks as a service to subscribers who support our non-profit, non-commercial station at the yearly rate of $15.00 (student subscriptions, $10.00). All contributions are tax deductible.

On the air: Mon.-Fri., 7:00 a.m.-midnight; Sat. and Sun., 8:00 a.m.-midnight. Listeners in certain parts of the East Bay who have difficulty receiving KPFA clearly can hear all these programs on KPFB at 89.3 mc.

KPFA is owned by Pacifica Foundation, a non-profit institution. Other Pacifica stations are KPFK, Los Angeles 38, California, and WBAI, New York 16, New York. Subscriptions are transferable. The duration of programs scheduled is approximate. Dates after listings indicate past or future duplicate broadcasts; an indication of the time of such scheduling refers to a more detailed description of the program. A asterisk preceding a music listing means the performance is not commercially available.

OUR COVER is by Wally Hedrick (see p. 17)

KPFA IS NOT GOING TO THE DOGS, BUT THE DOGS ARE GOING TO KPFA

Among the wild and improbable gifts to KPFA is an exotic dog. A dog? Nay, a Prince, a King, a first edition of dogdom. In short (or rather long) a Saluki, the Royal Dog of Egypt, sometimes called a Gazelle Hound or an Egyptian Greyhound. By name, "Maharajah." Age: 14 month. The American Kennel Clubs Dog says "exactly the same dog appears on the Egyptian tombs of 2100 BC. Whenever one sees the word 'dog' in the Bible it means the Saluki."

Sired by champions who were sired by champions, this priceless aristocrat will go for a price to help KPFA. If you have a yen for a friend with champion's blood and one who is an unusual show dog; if you have the liras to purchase him; if you can assure us that you can provide a home suited to his gentle nature and noble character, call us, or write us, or come and see us.

KPFA wants to get out of the financial doghouse.

8:00 FROM THE CENTER:

The Public Happiness: Harry S. Ashmore of the Center, Pulitzer Prize-winning editor, argues that we have reached the end of a revolutionary epoch, for the great middle mass in America now lives in the center of a narrow horizon bounded almost exclusively by concerns for its own well-being. So, too, Lyndon Johnson is probably the last President we will know who has been wholly conditioned by the values of a vanishing America. Limiting himself to Johnson's domestic policy, Mr. Ashmore gives a picture of the President's performance, and explains why this most sentimental of Presidents is so little loved.

The Enduring Exception: In this personal look at the race issue, Harry S. Ashmore of the Center suggests that the intellectual's normal tendency to complicate fundamental and simple propositions is nowhere more sharply demonstrated than in the race issue. (CSDI) (Jan. 6)

JANUARY MUSIC PROGRAMMING

In this Folio The Art of the Performer, which is produced by Fred Maroth, launches a new sub-series. Many of our listeners may remember the special seven-part series we broadcast last August on Wanda Landowska; this month we begin an equally significant series on Joseph Szigeti. The programs will present, this month, the complete Beethoven sonata cycle; next month we will hear contemporary music for violin, much of it on recordings never commercially released. The Art of the Performer is heard at a new time in this Folio: every Sunday night at 9:00 (with a daytime re-broadcast the following day).

Our live broadcasts continue with a recital from the San Francisco Jewish Community Center on Jan. 10, with Robert Sayre and Istvan Nadas,

And, toward the end of this Folio, Music News makes a reappearance. We apologize for its long absence, which was occasioned by the lack of a music assistant. This situation has been rectified (welcome, Ian Underwood!); and we should be able to get more done in the future.

And on Sunday, Jan. 9 and Jan. 23, we are broadcasting two programs in a sporadic series on important compositions in the music tradition. We're beginning with the Gurre Lieder, by Arnold Schoenberg, and the Art of Fugue, Bach's last large work.

7:00 COMMENTARY: Roy Kepler. (Jan. 3)

7:15 HAYDN'S 105TH:

Those who want to bear in mind that KPFA broadcast this program originally on April 1 can do so; others if they wish, can take the program seriously. It was originally listed the following way: "The British musicologist, the well-known H. C. Landon Robbins, has come across still another "Salomon" symphony, composed by Haydn during his last years in London. The symphony, not previously thought to be by Haydn, called, for the moment, his "Symphony no. 105," is introduced by William Malloch. A complete performance follows." (KPFA)

A NOTE ON THE FOLIO . . .

By now, subscribers may be growing accustomed to the inconsistencies between successive editions of the Folio. Some of these inconsistencies are still attributable to the fairly recent conversion to a four-week publication; others arise from changes in editorial staff.

One change, appearing for the first time in this Folio, is the drastic paring of program description when a program is re-scheduled. Our intent is to provide a fairly detailed program listing for each program when it is broadcast in prime listening time—whether in the evening or on the weekend—and to keep listings considerably terser for weekday broadcasts. These rebroadcasts will indicate the date and time under which the reader will find a more detailed listing.

A PARTIAL INDEX OF NOTEWORTHY PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS:

China: Dec. 29, 9:00 p.m.; Dec. 31, 8:00 p.m.; Jan. 19, 8:15 p.m.

Vietnam: Dec. 30, 9:00 p.m.; Jan. 5, 7:15 p.m.; Jan. 11, 9:00 p.m.; Jan 21, 8:30 p.m.

. AND A NOTE FROM THE PRODUCTION OFFICE

HELP WANTED . . . $20,000 a year men for free

KPFA stays on the air from one day to the next only through the support of many members of the community we serve. Our subscribers support us financially, and volunteer workers are an integral part of our operations.

Perhaps the most difficult kind of staff integration is in our need for help in the more technical aspects of broadcasting. Frankly, we're looking for people who are much better than the average "professional." For example, we would like our announcers to have a working familiarity with French, Italian, German, Spanish, and the Slavic languages, as well as a pleasant and intelligent manner of speaking on the air. We have a constant need for competent board operators and recording engineers.

We can offer a small amount of training, although not nearly as much as we would like. Some experience would be helpful but is not necessary; potential ability is what counts.

We have a small but constant turnover among volunteers, and will welcome all inquiries . . . and we ask you to pass this on to friends who might be interested.

Setting for ANTIGONE

Early this year the Greek Theatre at the University of California was the scene of a major production of Sophocles' Antigone, in the translation of H. D. F. Kitto. The University Theater was fortunate to have as director Takis Muzenidis, director of the Greek National Theater and at that time a lecturer in the University's Department of Dramatic Art. A recording of this production, supervised by an engineer from Columbia Records, is due to be released shortly in conjunction with Scott Foresman. Prior to this release, KPFA will be broadcasting the play on Jan. 8 at 2:30.

The cast in this production is as follows:

Creon	George Hitchcock
Haemon	Harley Clements
Teiresias	John Argue
Guard	Sidney Roger
Messenger	George House
Antigone	Ruth Silveira
Ismene	Dana Larson
Eurydice	Maria Millman
Boy	Michael Oliver
Chorus Leaders	Dexter Bullard, Charles Levy, Roger Price

Music was composed especially for this performance by William Denny and performed by an instrumental ensemble from the music department under the direction of the composer. The recording engineers were George Craig and Mike Francisco.

PROFILE . . . we introduce two newcomers to the KPFA Commentary series

Robert L. Coate, 41, has recently been elected to the position of state chairman of the Democratic Party. His political career started in 1953 when he became the founding president of the Castro Valley Democratic Club; since then he worked in the campaigns of Assemblyman Carlos Bee and State Controller Alan Cranston.

Mr. Coate was a finance worker in John Shelley's mayoralty campaign, and he served as Treasurer of the California Central Committee before his election to the presidency of that organization.

His civic activities have included appointments as a trustee of the Hayward Union High School District, of Chabot College, and of the Coro Foundation; and he was elected President of the Fair Play Council of Southern Alameda County. Mr. Coate is Vice President and Director of Winfield and Co., Inc. and of Investor's Guaranty Life Insurance Co.

Kent H. Kaiser, 28, was born and reared in San Francisco and on the Peninsula. He is a graduate of Stanford University, where he earned a degree in Economics. He served two years as a Lieutenant (JG) with the Navy, where his tours of duty, aboard the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Ticonderoga, took him to the Far East.

Mr. Kaiser is presently in the institutional sales department of Blyth and Company, and is a registered representative of the New York Stock Exchange. He was formerly associated with the Investment Department of the Bank of America.

Mr. Kaiser has held the positions of Assistant Treasurer, Treasurer, and National Committeeman of the California Young Republicans; and he has served in numerous other activities within the Republican Party. He is a Director of the Winds of Freedom Foundation.

Our series of Profiles of KPFA staff and volunteers will continue in the next issue of the Folio, when our subject will be Bob Bergstresser, who was appointed Production Director last November.

ADVERTISING HASN'T CHANGED MUCH IN 73 YEARS...

A perfect plaster, nobly planned.
To warm, to comfort, on demand.

DID you ever read the names of some of those who vouch for ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS? Mrs. Beecher says it is the only plaster she ever indorsed. These are the names of people who live to do good. This time they write to do good. Some of them say that ALLCOCK'S Porous Plaster has been a member of the family for thirty years. They know it is good for pains in the back, side, chest, and for sprains, cold on the chest, weak back, and wherever there is an ache. Several thousand other people you have heard of say the same.

Absurd exaggeration and the solicited testimonial are no newcomers to the advertising scene; these examples were clipped from the pages of the Ladies Home Journal for 1893, and they seem to incorporate the worst features of modern advertising.

We don't think we shall be accused of undue emphasis if we state that while many of our advertisers have found the KPFA Folio to be a rewarding avenue for reaching the consumer, others tell us that it was a sheer waste of money. In a testimonial (unsolicited) A. H. C. states: "You will be pleased to know that the ad which you kindly ran for us in the KPFA Folio produced fantastic results." A family which claims to derive its income from a three line classified ad sent a message to us on the back of a picture postcard from Mexico: "We are on a long vacation. Please repeat our last ad in the Folio mailed on or after Feb. 5th . . . having a lovely time."

C. M. wrote: "Shortly after the first listing appeared, I started getting a small but steady flow of new customers from all around the Bay." On the other hand, F. and B. each said (in effect) "count me out; if I want to contribute I'll do it directly from now on."

What's the reason? It's not easy to define, but if you have a product or service which primarily or exclusively appeals to or is in demand by intelligent, inquisitive, cultured people of all ages, there is no better place for you to advertise than in the pages of the KPFA Folio.

In the next issue of the new month Folio, changes in advertising rates will be in effect. CLASSIFIED AD RATES: 30c per word per insertion, 25c per word for 6 or more insertions.
